Read the instructions carefully and what YOU need to do

Read the information carefully

Information

- The marks for questions are shown in brackets.
- The maximum mark for this paper is 50.
- You are reminded of the need for good English and clear presentation in your answers. Where applicable, questions should be answered in continuous prose. Quality of Written Communication will be assessed in all answers.

The question

It may seem obvious, but read it carefully!!

You would be surprised by the number of people who 'think' they have read the question, but they haven't. Their answer may be accurate to the subject, but will score '0' because it is not the answer to the question.

Which are command words?

Which are keywords?

Describe, Challenges, Benefits, Examine,

Identify, Negatives, Source, Compare, Contrast,

Effects, Location, Relationship, Equipment

P – Point: Make a relevant point to answer the question

E – Evidence: Provide evidence to back up your point

E – Explain: Give an explanation to demonstrate your thinking?

The '5 minute' call

- Don't panic
- Complete the question you are on
- Bullet point what you would include in an answer if you had time (it is better to write something than to leave it blank)!
- If you have completed the paper, don't just sit there.....read through your answers and check for any mistakes (including spellings) and correct what you can!
